

Become a Tree Sponsor Today!

This event would simply not be possible without the generosity of our volunteers and sponsors!

Make spirits bright at this year's Homes For The Holidays by becoming a Tree Sponsor today. After touring the beautifully decorated rooms at Cecil Green Park House, guests will wander outside to the covered Terrace of Trees overlooking the gorgeous mansion gardens. Here guests can purchase a drink, browse among the wondrous display of locally created art on auction, and vote for their favourite tree to win a prize. Here on the terrace is where they linger to admire 20 breathtaking designer-decorated evergreens, each proudly displaying its sponsors name and the design firm that generously donated its time to create it.

HOMES for the HOLIDAYS 20 TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY

From November 15 to 16, 2025, Homes For The Holidays will celebrate its 20th anniversary at Vancouver's iconic mansion, Cecil Green Park House! Slated to be the the most anticipated holiday-themed design event of the season, this festive extravaganza will support the YWCA Metro Vancouver's Housing Action Fund to help address the ever-growing need for safe and affordable homes for single mothers and their children in Metro Vancouver.

Every year, approximately 1,200 attendees, design and build professionals, supporters, live performers and volunteers contribute to the success of the event from all over the province. Considering that there are endless events during the Holiday season, Homes For The Holidays has become a tradition and a must-see attraction.

The stately cliff-top garden estate will open its doors to welcome guests into its elegantly transformed rooms showcasing uniquely festive décor ideas ranging from tablescape to room vignettes. For two inspiring decades, this sparkling self-guided tour has attracted visitors who have a passion for home and interior design, residential architecture, and holiday entertaining. Guests will enjoy live music as they walk through the exquisitely decorated rooms of one of Vancouver's most prestigious and historically significant properties.

Why Sponsor a Tree?

Sponsoring a tree is one of the most joyful—and accessible—ways to be part of this cherished annual celebration of design, creativity, and community.

It's a fun, highly engaging way to showcase your brand while creating awareness for an important cause. Your tree becomes more than a beautiful display; it's a statement that you believe in safe, affordable housing for women and children. 100% of proceeds go directly to the YWCA Metro Vancouver Housing Action Fund, turning holiday magic into real homes.

With over 1,000 households waiting for affordable housing, every tree sponsored helps bring us closer to opening the doors of new communities across Metro Vancouver. It's a small gesture with a big impact—one that your clients, employees, and community will see, share, and remember.
